LIFT students give a thumbs up for The EES Express display at the Jackson County Fair.

Enjoying the Dance Revolution

Madison, Jesse and other LIFT students created flyers.

EES Express

Ms. Pettaway created the EES Express school wide incentive program, to encourage good student behavior. Students who follow the school rules, and who complete class assignments, get to enjoy the program incentives. The incentives include Blue Jeans Day, Dance Revolution, and recess. It is a great program for our school.

Celebrating Black History

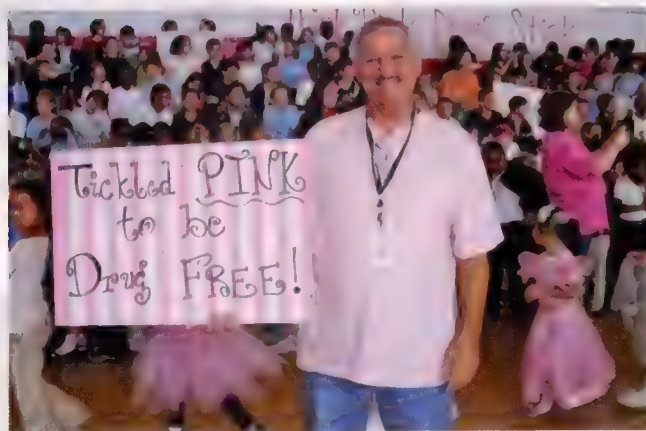

Think Pink

EES celebrated Drug Free Week in a special way. The drug awareness week included a recognition of breast cancer research. The school raised funds that were donated to recognize Ms. Pettaway as a cancer survivor.

Ms Thompson, Ms. Carroll, and Ms. Pettaway stand with a representative from the cancer society.

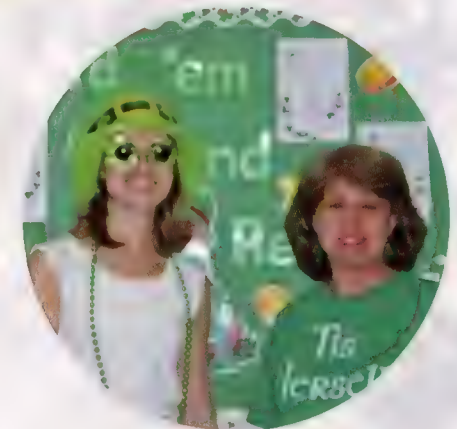

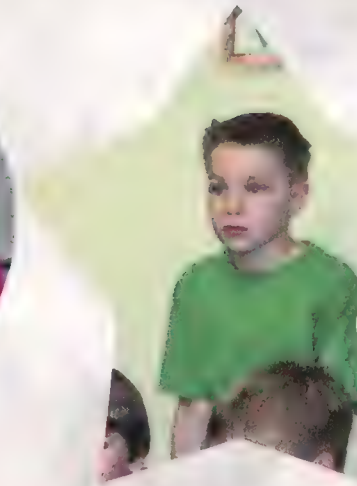

Even Mr. Man wore pink!!

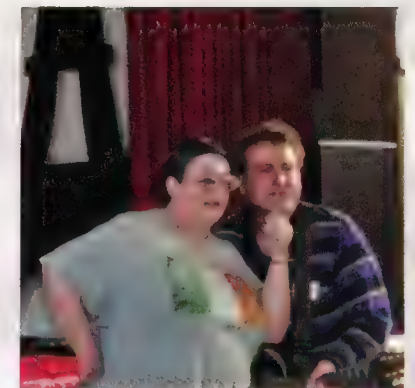

Faith, Crystal, Destiny, and Kalisha Scott help to present the school's donation. Their mom is a survivor.

Going Green

The second grade sponsored a day of entertainment on St. Patrick's Day, with Mr. O'Leary and a day of Celtic fun.
